

Residence Hall Information for NPUC Teachers Summer 2021

Dean Contacts: Amanda Ponce, Associate Dean
509-527-2531; e-mail foreman@wallawalla.edu

We are happy to have you stay in our residence halls and look forward to seeing you. The following pointers will help make your stay more enjoyable. Please contact the dean on duty if you have any questions.

1. You should have registered for classes before you check into the residence hall.
2. We must know your arrival and departure dates in advance. Scheduled check-in time for the first regular session is Sunday, June 20, 3:00–9:00 pm. We cannot accommodate early arrivals due to moving and cleaning schedules. Please let us know if you will be arriving later than these times.
3. Female teachers will be housed in Foreman Hall. Male teachers will be housed in Conard Hall. The cost of rent is $153/week. If you are staying less than 7 days, Village Housing guestrooms may be a better option for you. Contact the Village Life office for rates 509-527-2624.
4. Summer residence hall accommodations are available to enrolled students only—sorry, no relatives or friends.
5. Our residence hall rooms are designed for adults and there are no planned activities for children. Residence hall housing is restricted to adults. If you need further information, please contact us.
6. Items provided in each room:
 - ♦ Two single beds
 - ♦ Two desks
 - ♦ Two chairs
 - ♦ Sink
 - ♦ Window blinds
 - ♦ ClosetItems you may wish to bring:
 - ♦ Bedding and towels (not provided)
 - ♦ Microwave (but no red-element appliances such as hot plates)
 - ♦ Refrigerator
 - ♦ Cell phone (land line hookups are no longer provided in rooms)
 - ♦ Computer (network/internet hookup and wireless access provided)
7. If you plan to receive mail while you are here, please have it addressed to you, 204 South College Avenue, College Place, WA 99324.. Please check for mail at the Education office if you are expecting anything. We ask that you not forward mail to the residence hall for your short summer stay, due to postal forwarding requirements that we must follow for an entire year after you leave.
8. Rooms and parking are available for individuals with disability needs. Please contact Disability Support Services at 509-527-2366 or sue.huett@wallawalla.edu for more information.
9. No pets allowed. Exceptions are made for emotional support and service animals approved through Disability Support Services.
10. You are responsible for making sure your room rent and other charges are paid. We will bill your student account. Reimbursement, if applicable, should be worked out directly with your conference.
11. A WWU alumni card can be used to access the residence hall and to charge at the Express mini-mart and University Bookstore. You are responsible for paying these charges when you receive your monthly statement. You can have a card made at the Information Technology office (RGH; Monday–Thursday, 8:00-5:00; Friday, 8:00-12:00). There is a $15 charge for this card, which is reusable every summer.
12. WWU is a smoke free, drug free, and alcohol-free campus. Please be aware that any violation of this policy will result in a loss of on-campus housing.
