Dear friends and family,

I'd like share the exciting news that I will be serving as a student missionary (SM) next year through Walla Walla University (WWU). I will be serving as a (position) in (location) with (organization).

I believe this experience will provide incredible professional and personal growth opportunities, as well as growth in my walk with God. I know we face uncertain times as a global family, but I believe God continues to call us as His disciples to share His love in tangible ways. Now more than ever, people need to see God's love in action, and I know that He is faithful to provide what I need to fulfill this mission.

WWU is continuing to monitor the travel and safety impact of the pandemic and will only send me to locations that have been carefully vetted.

Taking a year out of college to be an SM can be challenging, but also deeply rewarding, and it does take preparation. To work alongside the organization I will be serving with, I need to raise the necessary funds for my mission experience. In order to be a student missionary next year, I need to raise _____. I'm seeking to meet this goal in many different ways, including talking with my local church, doing odd jobs in my community, writing letters to my support system, and more.

I know the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic is far-reaching, but please know that every little bit helps as I seek to reach my fundraising goal! I also would really love your prayer support as I take this opportunity to grow while seeking to make a tangible impact.

My fundraising will cover necessary expenses of my mission experience including travel costs and living expenses, as well as important training and support provided by the Student Missions Program before, during, and after my time in the field.

Again, any amount you are able to share would be extremely helpful and appreciated. Your gift is tax-deductible, and online giving is easy. Just go to wallawalla.edu/smd.

You can also mail in a donation using the enclosed, postage-paid envelope. Just be sure to write your check payable to "Walla Walla University." Provide your information on the flap of the envelope provided and be sure to write my name in the "student solicitor" space.

I am really looking forward to this life-changing opportunity to grow through service. Thank you so much for your support and your prayers toward my student missions experience! When I return, I hope to share many stories of God's work during this coming year.

Prayerfully,

[your name]

Donations are deposited into the Student Missionary Fund. If there are any excess funds raised, or if I am not able to serve this next year due to safety considerations from COVID-19, etc., those funds will remain in the SM Fund earmarked in my name during the rest of my time as a WWU student. Whatever funds I have not used for short or long-term mission experiences by the time I graduate will go to provide fundraising assistance or emergency aid to other student missionaries
